informs me that the disciples of the Mutt are anxious to have the Swamigalu in Bangalore on the Ramanujachari Thirunakshatram falling on the 10th May and that as the Swamigalu has already arrived at ~~Bangalore~~ Hosur, it is necessary that the Swamigalu should leave Hosur on the 7th inst. and arrive at Bangalore on the 9th inst. Submitted to His Highness

(9) His Holiness the Swamigalu of the Sri Thotadri (Vanamamalai) Matt in the Nanguneri Taluk of the Tinnevelly District has addressed a Srimukha dated 1st May 1913 to the Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore announcing his intention of proceeding on a pilgrimage to Melkote and of visiting Bangalore on his way.

(10) 2. The Agent of the Matt had also communicated to me the Swamigalu's intention to visit the State about the middle of this month and after a short stay at Bangalore, to proceed to Melkote. This communication was referred by me to the First Councillor for being dealt with. He has accordingly forwarded the records on the subject together with certain papers relating to the visit of a Swamigalu of the same Matt to Mysore in 1850.

(11) 3. From a Nirup No.1073 dated 19th November 1850 addressed by the Superintendent of the Ashtagram Division to the Amildars of certain taluks, and also from the Revenue Secretary's Official Memorandum dated 22nd June 1881 it is seen that the Matt in question has been recognized as one of the important Matts of the Sri Vaishnava persuasion.

(12) 4. Further, in the list of important Matts entitled to the privilege of the first day's Biksha from Government approved and sanctioned by His Highness the Maharaja in order dated 23rd August 1909, the "Vanamamalai Thotadri Matt" has been included and a sum of Rs.75 allowed for the purpose.

(13) 5. It is now learnt that the Swamigalu is expected to arrive at Bangalore on the morning of the 9th instant.

Mur 7 624 712-13

14) 6. In this connection, a Rahadari, as per copy enclosed, has been issued on the usual lines to the Amildars and other officers of the State intimating the visit of the Swamigalu and instructing them to make the usual arrangements en route. The birudavalies (insignia), &c., mentioned in the Rahadari are ordinary ones, except kettle-drums on camel (ಒಂಟೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ನಗಾರಿ ) and Vyala man (ವ್ಯಾಳದ ಕಲ್ಪನೆ ). As regards these, the Muzrai Superintendent has noted that, as the Matt is a foreign one apparently using these insignia en route, they may be passed current also in this State without any special enquiry.

15) 7. It is now proposed to issue an order of Government on the lines of a draft herewith submitted in regard to the arrangements necessary for the reception of the Swamigalu on his arrival at Bangalore. Among the honours, &c., to be allowed, which are specified in the draft, it is proposed to detail an escort of 6 Silledars and a set of bandsmen to accompany the Swamigalu in the procession at Bangalore. The Muzrai Superintendent has brought to notice that the grant of this honour is a Council matter requiring His Highness' sanction. The First Councillor states that this may be treated as a Council matter, but fears there is hardly time. As for the Military escort, he thinks it "proper to show the same honours to this Matha as to that of Sivaganga, &c." The papers have not passed through the Second Councillor probably for want of time.

16) 8. I submit the papers for His Highness' orders. The honour of allowing a Cavalry escort and bandsmen may, if His Highness so pleases, be conceded and the draft order approved. I find that the Sivaganga Matt has been allowed the Cavalry escort and bandsmen during the Swamigalu's visit to Bangalore.

17) 9. The Swamigalu arrives on the 9th instant as Shown at Melkote the Sri court reports that the Parakala mutt is agreeable to the honours mentioned in Dy Cmr's proceedings but that the latter should not go with music and paraphernalia in front of the Parakala Mutt. As regards this latter point it seems advisable to leave to the local magistracy to arrange the route. A specific order in the matter is not quite desirable there is nothing to show that the Parakala Mutt itself is entitled to this consideration

The same honours may be shown as on previous occasions in both the temples of Seringapatam and Melkote. # Translation of the Shaha Amal Diary of the Sri Ranganathaswami Temple at Seringapatam.

The details of the honors paid to - Ramanuja Jeer Swamigalu of the Totadri - Vanamamalai Matt when he visited the Sri - Ranganathaswami temple at Serangapatam on 3rd August 1888 in accordance with the - Taluk Order No. 972/145 dated 1st August 1888 corresponding to Friday Ekadasi - - Ashadha Bahula, Sarvadhari year.

This day after 9 o'clock after the - daily worship and Manabhishela to Ammanvaru being Friday, and Archane and Shathoray, Ramanuja Jeer, Swamigalu of the Vanamamalai Totadri Matt who had resided in the Narasimhaswamy temple, was conducted in procession in a gold Palakki with Chattri and Chamara, came near the temple at about 7 - 11 o'clock, got down from the Palanquin - outside the threshold of the temple Mahadwara. Simultaneously, Sri Satagopura, 5 Namam balls, 2 pairs of Yagnopavita, Srichurna, 2 Abhayahastas, 2 Sandal balls, - 2 Saffron balls, 1 Niraji parivatta, Rattumale, Thirtha batlu, Tulsi Prasada etc., were brought from inside as per manul in a dish by Archaks, Paricharaks, Staniks and all the Vedaparayanam men with silver -- Deevatage, Chamara and music. Stanik - Sreenivasiengar brought Karaga; Archak - Kesava Bhatta tied Parivatta, while the - Swamigalu was standing outside the threshold.

The Swamigalu washed his hands with the water given by Staniks from the Karaga. Rattumale was put on; after Abhyahasta, Srichurna, Nama balis etc., were presented to the Swamigalu, he went inside. The Chattri and Chamara were stopped near the Dwajastambha, and the Swamigalu went to the Swami Sannidhi. After presentation of Phala (cocoanut etc.), and Arati, Sesha vastra, Parivatta, Ratturnale and Thirtha Prasada were distributed, the Archaks were given a dakshane of Re. 1/-, Thirtha was given to the people present, the Swamigalu came outside and visited, Viswaksena, Paravadevaru, Alwar line of Shrines, Narasimhaswami, Gajendravaradaraj Swami, Sri Krishnaswami temples. In all these temples Thirtha and Male were presented. The Swamigalu then visited the Ammanavaru Sannidhi and there was the distribution of Phala, Arati, Thirtha and Male. He then gave dakshine to Archaks and came back. He afterwards passed through Sripada and Northern doorway and visited the Vedantachar, Oldgudi Venkatramana, Anjaneyadevaru Garudadevaru, Jeer, Pullalokachar, Nathmuni Shrines, Thirtha and Male were distributed, and came back and sat down at Patala Ankana. The Adhyapakas and Vedaparayanamen presented Phalas and prostrated themselves before the Swamigalu. The Swamigalu himself said that Sambhavane would be given if they would all go to the Narasimhaswami temple where he had encamped. Having said that the Satagopa kanike would also be given at the Matt, he sat in the Palanquin and proceeded to the Narasimhaswami temple. Dakshine ~~were~~ was not given to any of the people belonging to the several shrines visited. The Niraje Parivatta originally ~~rend~~ was taken by the Mandi authorities themselves. Sesha vastra and Parivatta were returned (to the temple). On the day next after the visit of the Swamigalu to the Matt Viz., Ashada Bahula Dwadasi, it was directed that a sum of Rs. 38-3-0 was payable for the Satagopa Kanike of this temple as also of the Sri Narasimhaswami temple, together with the Dakshine to all the Upadhivantas of the shrines all round. As, out of this, Rs. 2/- and 1-8-0 ~~having~~ were already been paid by the Swamigalu himself while visiting the temples of Sri Ranganathaswami and Narasimhaswami, the remaining Rs. 35/- was given to the Head Parapathegar ~~and~~ directed (and it was) that this should be given to all as was found suitable. The amount was distributed as follows:-

Rs. 12-12-0 to Narasimhaswami temple.
" 25-12-0 to Ranganathaswami temple.

and these amounts were distributed in those temples.

Out of the amount received in this temple, Rs. 12/- were credited towards the Satagopa kanike as per manual and the balance of Rs. $13\frac{3}{4}$ was distributed to all as dakshine; the distibution has been noted in Batawade Karadu.

Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No, 573 dated 23rd May 1913 re honors to be shown to the Swamigalu of Sri Thothadri Mutt if he visits the Sri Ranganathaswami Temple at Seringapatam, I have the honor to submit herewith in original the file of papers received with Seringapatam Taluk Amildar's report No. 227 dated the 26th instant for reference and obliging return.

From the copies of Shaha-Diary of the temple which shows the honors done to the several Swamigalu when they visited the temple on previous occasions, it may be made out what honors have been shown to the Swamigalu of the Sri Thothadri Mutt in 1888 and I am of opinion that the honors therein mentioned may be shown to him now.

Flag A shows the honors done to the Swamigalu in 1888.

Dear Mr. Subramanya Iyer

Please refer to your official letter No. 532 Dy 23rd May 1913, regarding the marriage dues to be shown to the Swamigalavaru of the Sri Thondadi Vanamamalai Mutt at Melkote.

Therein you refer to the opinion of the Swamigalavaru of Sri Parakala Mutt which the

the Sri Thothadri Swamigalavaru should not be allowed to go with music and other paraphernalia in front of the Sri Parakala Matt as hitherto

In this connection, I am to observe that it is of doubtful expediency to countenance the claim of the Sri Parakala Matt about the stopping of the music in front of the vacant matt building, as it would not be in keeping with what is due to the visiting Swamigalavaru

The matter will, however, be left to the discretion of the local magistracy as suggested by you that particular route may be avoided if practicable if it is absolutely necessary
